Description

The starting point is the bus stop in Obermauern. From there, follow the signs along trail no. 46 to the suspension bridge. After crossing the suspension bridge, you hike along the Iseltrail - continuing through the Isel gorge - to Bobojach. Shortly before the Bobojach district, another highlight awaits hikers: a 25 metre long viewing platform made of Corten steel with fascinating views of the roaring gorge. The way back is via the "Hohe Bank" (trail no. 31) to the district of Obermauern. The Maria Schnee pilgrimage church with its impressive frescoes can be visited free of charge throughout the day.
