Paths of the romans

Start your time journey through the former settlement area of the ancient Romans.

Attention: The Mühlensteig Gödnach is temporarily CLOSED due to renovation work!

Altitude profile

Paths of the romans

The most important at a glance

distance	altitude meters uphill	altitude meters downhill	total walking time
15 km	530 m	530 m	5 h

highest point	difficulty	state:
1180 m	easy	Teilw. Geöffnet

fitness:

* * * * *

technique:

* * * * *

public transport:

parking: From the train station in Lienz, take the nr 942 regional bus to the bus stop of Stribach Aguntum.

Coming from the train station in Lienz, drive in the direction of Carinthia / Oberdrauburg.

After the village of Nussdorf-Debant you reach the Roman city of Aguntum with its many excavations Parking space at the roman city of Aguntum starting point: Römerstadt Aguntum destination point: Römerstadt Aguntum best season: APR, MAY, JUN, JUL, AUG, SEP, OCT route typ: circuit

arrival

Parking spot

Car park Seichenbrunn

Gpx file

download>

Interactive map

open>

Paths of the romans

Description

Starting from the only Roman city in Tyrol, called Aguntum, there is a hiking trail which leads through the national park villages of Dölsach and Iselsberg-Stronach.

At selected stations you will receive information about the history of this landscape.

The trail "Römerweg" can be done in 3 stages.

1. Stage

Aguntum --> Dölsach

6 km | ca. 2 hours

Stations: Aguntum - Dölsacher Anger - Outdoor pool Dölsach - Chapel Görtschach - Mühlensteig Gödnach

2. Stage

Dölsach --> Iselsberg

4 km | ca. 1 hour

Stations: Rastplatz Moar - Ruin Wallenstein - Stronach

3. Stage

Iselsberg --> Aguntum

5 km | ca. 2 hours

Stations: Maienhöhe - Panoramic place Iselsberg/Lavantblick - Pondorfer Futterhäusl - Aguntum