Description

Start from the beautiful village square Schlaiten and follow the sign on the slightly descending path to the impressive Daberer waterfall. Then along meadows and forest paths via Törl-Martel and left up to Gantschach. Further on along the old Göriacher Weg (path) with a fantastic view to the Iseltal-valley in East Tyrol to Göriach. From there via house „Gridling“ (an old mining-house from the 16th century) and „Pension Schoberblick“ to the chapel „Zum guten Hirten“. This place with its magnificent view invites to spend some time! The way back – slightly descending – leads first through the forest and along old farmhouses till the starting point „Schlaitner Wirt“.
