Description

The Talweg in Matrei in Osttirol is an easy to moderate difficult hike, which you can either do in one go or in individual stages. You can complete the almost 15 kilometre route in approx. 4h30min. The starting point is Rauterplatz in the centre of Matrei i. O. Travelling by public transport? No problem, the Korberplatz bus stop is just a 5-minute walk from Rauterplatz. There are also several bus stops along the way if you run out of breath.

Lotti the sheep accompanies little hikers along the trail and rewards you - after solving the riddle - with a little surprise, which you can pick up at the Matrei i. O. tourist information centre. The information pillars show you historical photos of the Tauern community and tell you exciting stories from days gone by.

An easy, varied hike with many interesting stops awaits you - discover the valley trail, discover Matrei i. O.!

The passage via the Thiemeweg is only recommended for experienced hikers who are sure-footed! Alternatively, you can also hike to Auerfeld on the opposite side of the Tauernbach stream.
