Description

After the car park near Dolomitenhütte Rudl-Eller-Weg branches off to the left and proceeds steeply uphill via rocky terrain. Continue across the larch meadows to the Zellin. Crossing the cable-supported rock furrows and rock ledges requires surefootedness. Via numerous hairpin bends we get to Hohe Törl (2098 m). Pass the access area to the ledge which has flatirons, continue via the grassy slopes and we get to the summer trail up to Karlsbaderhütte.
