Description

In Kalser Ködnitztal, you can use an all-terrain ‘towing vehicle’, the SwissTrac, from the Glocknerwinkel car park on a barrier-free hiking trail towards the Grossglockner to the end of the valley free of charge. You can experience the diverse fauna, such as marmots, chamois, ibexes, eagles and bearded vultures up close in the NP panorama exhibition, enjoy the splendour of the flowers and learn about historical and geological features on the ‘GlocknerSpur BergeDenken’ educational trail.
