Description

In the surroundings of the Bodenalm and Wallhorner Alm, wooden structures await hikers that are not commonplace. This "resting places", modelled on the historical resting places once used by farmers to relax while working in the mountain meadows. The entrance to the nature experience is at the parking place Bodenalm. The 4 stations are located between 1.950 and 2.130 m and do not have any steep inclines. The snack station Bodenalm (not open right now) can be reached from the parking place Bodenalm (free of charge!) after a short hike of 40 minutes. The easy and family-friendly circular hike to all 4 resting places from the Bodenalm takes about 2 hours.
